ABOUT PRITHA DEV

Pritha Dev is a Professor of Economics at the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad. She holds a PhD in Economics from New York University, an MS in Quantitative Economics from the Indian Statistical Institute, Delhi, and a BA (Hons.) in Economics from the University of Rajasthan. Before joining IIMA in 2015, she was a faculty member at the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México.

Prof. Dev's research explores the intersection of microeconomics, networks, gender, and human behaviour, with particular attention to issues such as sexual harassment, gender-based violence, health, and social norms. She has served as the founding Chairperson of the Gender Center at IIMA and has contributed to research and policy initiatives on workplace equity and women's safety.
